

What does the European Union mean to you? Would you like to know more about the many opportunities for work, travel and interaction with the EU? Join us on Thursday, 5 October for an information (and gift) packed, one-day event to "Discover Europe for Your Future" This three-part event has something on offer for everyone!

Dialogue with Europe - 10am to 1pm

SMU School of Accounting Auditorium, Level 2, Conference Hall 2

Panel 1: Speak Your Mind, Mind Your Speech? – European and Asian Perspectives on Rights of Expression

This panel discussion chaired by former Danish Ambassador Jørgen Møller will examine the different perspectives in Asia and Europe on the rights of expression and what it means for future relations between the regions. The panel comprises local and foreign journalists and academics for a thought-provoking & lively discussion.

Panel 2: Asia and Europe in a Globalised World – Competitors or Partners?

Europe and Asia have a long history of economic corporation but what does Globalisation mean for this relationship? Can there still be a partnership which capitalizes on the synergies between the regions' economies or does this mean that Europe must now compete with Asia to keep its status as the world's largest economy? Chaired by Etienne Reuter the EC fellow at the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy & former Head of the EC Delegation to Hong Kong.

European Cultural Pavilion - 10am to 6pm

SMU Concourse at the Lee Kong Chian School of Business and the School of Accountancy
